SENIOR CLASS AUCTION

The third annual Senior Class Auction will be held on Thursday, February 13 in Carey Mansion at 8:00 p.m. This year's fun and excitement will be provided by auctioneers Diane Caplin, Tom Flanagan, Anne Hyland, special guest Peggy Denness and a few surprises!

In honor of Valentine's Day, Cupid will be on hand, ready and willing to deliver balloons to all your sweethearts in attendance. Items up for bid include a sailboat outing, home-baked cookies, dinners in Newport, and many other fantastic offerings. Approximately one hundred interesting, useful and appealing items, donated by Salve faculty and staff, will be auctioned. There is a ceiling of $50 on every item. Two-week credit terms are available.

The Auction is sponsored by the Alumni Office and the 1986 Class Agents. All proceeds are donated to the College's Annual Fund as a gift from the Senior Class. The Parents' Association $1,000 raffle will be drawn at 9:30 p.m. Tickets will be available until that time.

Get your friends together. Come to Carey Mansion. View the items. And make your bid. The Senior Class Auction - it's going, going, gone!!

ANNOUNCEMENTS

THE WOMAN CONNECTION

A two-day conference titled, "The Woman Connection" will be held in Ochre Court on Wednesday, February 19 and Thursday, February 20. The conference, co-sponsored by members of Salve's faculty and staff, will explore the personal and social transformation of women in the 1980s.

Numerous speakers who are prominent counselors, religious leaders, educators and professionals will address a variety of topics.

Dr. Nancy Blackman, an associate professor in URI's Human Development Department, will speak on "Baby Doll or Barbie Doll: Issues of Early Female Sexuality." Her presentation will be a speculative essay on the early developmental sexual issues for the growing girl. Lynn Heufelder is the executive director of the Women's Resource Center of Newport County. She will speak and show a film - "Battered Women: Behind Closed Doors." Some of the other topics include "Women and the New Technologies", "Feminine Spirit and Imaginal Consciousness" and "Women in Transition."

The final presentation will be "You Can Get There From Here" by Rhode Island Secretary of State Susan Farmer.

All are cordially invited to attend. For presentation schedules and program information call Linda Cavanagh at Counseling Services, extension 282 or Dr. Laurel End of the Psychology Department, extension 221.
